6. Amy Rahne's report and More

- Teacher appreciation week was great
- Coffee cart – outside in a van by Dirt Coffee. They help students with autism by giving them jobs and provide them training. PTO is looking to sponsor this in Spring. Dirt Coffee's requirement is for the outside temperature to be over 40 degrees.
- Main Event – Mother/Son event from last year. They still have our deposit. As long as we don't lose our deposit, then let's reschedule in spring. PTO Board will discuss our deposit.
- Virtual Bingo – might become Virtual Lucky Duck Bingo.
- Halloween – no parade; Amy takes the kids safety and health in consideration for all decisions. Teachers are having a fun day for the kids. Amy will take photos and send to yearbook and create a slideshow.
- Marquee – the electronic marquee project was already started. It will go on the side of the building; they will get the largest sign for the smallest amount. BASE paid for the sign. Because it is going on the side of the building, we are saving $9,000 by not putting it in the original location. Staff will upload the messages into the sign. We could sell time on the board for those who don't want to paint the rock. PTO Board to discuss.
- Rock/Flagstone placed in old Marquee area. Amy is asking for someone to help or provide suggestions. PTO Board to discuss.
- Sam, office administrative assistant, resigned for personal reasons. Hayley Brown is newly hired and has some experience.
