- I. Welcome/ Introductions: Amy Rahne, Lisa White, Lyndsi Kocher, Amy Haines, Liz Wyknenko, Katie Crocker, Heather Miller, Jessica McCague, Denise Dice, Annemarie Behrens
- II. Financial Update:
 - We have brought in $3700 from King Soopers rebates so far this fiscal year, $2600 from silent auction, $1000 from Spirit rock/Marquee, $150 from Chick fil A
 - Expenses: Kona Ice was $1000 for back to school night, PTO helped CCE pay for sign out front $2500, $1700 for staff appreciation and Panera dinner for staff, $1000 to reimburse teachers for items for the classroom
 - So far this year we are about break even point
 - Positive feedback from teachers about the new audio system that distributes sound throughout the classroom, which was a PTO purchase from last fiscal year
- III. Upcoming Events
 - Holiday Shop – December 7-9 – more information will go out this week, kids get to shop for family members and loved ones, parent volunteers will help them shop
 - Modern Plate fundraiser: alternate to our typical restaurant nights, an opportunity for families to purchase pre-made meals for themselves or as gifts, CCE will get 10%, active now and ends December 13th, use CCE code during checkout process
 - Holiday Lights Tour & Food Drive – December 8th, 5-7pm – come to CCE anytime between 5-7pm for hot cocoa and cookies and a map of nearby homes with festive holiday decorations, also will be accepting canned good donations for the Backpack Society for those who want to bring a donation
 - Talent Show – we have a committee working on planning a CCE talent show, we typically use Ranch View since they have a stage, committee is wondering whether we should keep event in January (Fri Jan 28th) or postpone until the spring, PTO members will look into options for live-streaming the event as well for those who want to view it virtually, event will be free (with option to donate funds or purchase snacks)
